Pork Blade Roasts (a.k.a. pork rib end roast, pork 7-rib roast, 5-rib roast, rib end pork loin) are fattier than other roasts, but less expensive and with great flavor. If the roast is bone-in, then ask the butcher to crack the backbone between the ribs to make carving easier. Pork Tenderloins (see below) are popular for roasting because they are lean, moist, and flavorful.

Alabama Barbecue, ca. 1890s Barbecue, the coming together of fire, smoke, and meat, is one of the oldest cooking techniques known to humankind. The word barbecue itself, most scholars believe, takes its origin from the Taino Indian word babracot, which described the lashed-together wooden structure on which meat was smoked slowly over a grate in the Caribbean.

In the United States, there are four styles of BBQ. OK before you start sending me evil messages there are many others but most of the experts (and I am not one of them) talk about the four styles. Two are named after cities and two are named after states but all four represent a good portion of the Midwest and South.

Compared to ribs, pulled pork didn't take me long to get it to a place I was happy with. In just about one and half Meatwave seasons, I felt my recipe for a smoked pork butt was pretty top notch. I actually preferred my homemade pork to most I got in restaurants and at the Big Apple BBQ Block Party, with one big exception, Big Bob Gibson's. To this day, I have not eaten a barbecued pork shoulder ...
