Accident. As a researcher at the Institute for High Energy Physics in Protvino, Bugorski worked with the largest Soviet particle accelerator, the U-70 synchrotron. On 13 July 1978, Bugorski was checking a malfunctioning piece of equipment when the safety mechanisms failed. Bugorski was leaning over the equipment when he stuck his head in the path of the 76 GeV proton beam.

Tim Burton’s live-action remake of Disney classic Dumbo is, accidentally, a rather cutting critique of Disney's recent acquisition of Fox. It’s been less than a fortnight since The Walt Disney Company finalized its deal to acquire 21st Century Fox and its myriad assets, but we’re already seeing the fallout of that merger and how it’s impacting the entertainment industry at large.

How does Hollywood choose what stories get told on-screen? Too often, it's groupthink informed by a narrow set of ideas about what sells at the box office. As a producer, Franklin Leonard saw too many great screenplays never get made because they didn't fit the mold. So he started the Black List, an anonymous email that shared his favorite screenplays and asked: Why aren't we making these movies?
