Edward "Ned" Kelly (December 1854 - 11 November 1880) was an Australian bushranger, outlaw, gang leader and convicted police murderer. One of the last bushrangers, and by far the most famous, he is best known for wearing a suit of bulletproof armour during his final shootout with the police. Kelly was born in the British colony of Victoria as the third of eight children to Irish parents.

These are the major Western movie directors, and only Clint Eastwood is still alive and working today, though he's not made a Western since Unforgiven in 1992. (Interesting to note is that Eastwood made White Hunter, Black Heart just prior to Unforgiven, playing John Huston making The African Queen, whose only classic period Western was titled The Unforgiven, considered by many one of Huston's ...
